"...on his new album Love & Highways he's managed to capture the often elusive mysterious country/roots music vibe that's been mined to great effect by T Bone Burnett.....these songs are honest and telling due to a total lack of pretension or insincerity."

Rod Nicholson, Scene Magazine (London, ON, Canada)

"nadir is a richly decorated composition. Payne scores big as a lyrical talent because of his depth and a focused, refined approach that isn't over-produced and this effort heralds the arrival of a major songwriter."

"The strength of singer/songwriter (Barry James Payne) String Bone is both in the lyrics and the melody of these folk/ Americana songs which, on 'nadir' he lays out for you on a platter. If you can put out such terrific songs on a debut CD categorized as great, you must be a very gifted lyricist and songwriter. 'nadir' from String Bone is of an excellent high quality."
