

VOICES FOR THE SALISH SEA

Drawn together by their deep, abiding love for our amazing Pacific coastal heritage, Eco-Folk Rockers the Wilds, (Rock the Salish Sea) and Pacific Canadian muso-historians, Tiller's Folly (Stirring Up Ghosts) join forces in a celebration of songs and stories about the Salish Sea, it's beauty, history, ecology and culture.

Our five-piece Roots Music supergroup weave a rich, dynamic tapestry, up close and personal, sharing a deep connection with the Salish Sea in a repertoire that reflects decades of artistic consideration and expression.

Combining live musical performance, multimedia and more, our goal is to entertain, engage, educate and promote a sense of pride, awareness, advocacy and stewardship for the unique ecosystem that is our Salish Sea.

Tandem cultural and educational community outreach initiatives available.
